

Animal Adaptations

Explore your yard or other nearby nature spot. Find an animal and record your observations below. Use your observations to determine which of the animal's features or adaptations help it survive. Make sure that you are respectful to the animal and return it when you are done with your observations.

Animal Drawing

My animal is:

What color is the animal? How does this color help it to survive?

What type of skin does it have? (circle one) How does its skin help protect it?

feathers fur scales hard covering smooth skin

How many legs does it have?

How do the animal's body parts help it survive?