

MARCH ADVENTURE DAYS

REGISTRATION OPENS
FEBRUARY 1

Fridays, March 19 and 26, and Wednesday, March 24
9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Harris Center • Grades K through 4
$45 per day for Harris Center supporters / $65 per day for all others

Join Harris Center teacher-naturalists for an active day in the great outdoors! Bring your curiosity and sense of wonder as we explore our favorite trails, giant boulders, and secret dens. We'll search for signs of spring and discover what animals are walking out and about. Activities may include trail games, fort building, bird watching, animal tracking, and plant identification. Choose one day or all three! Come prepared to spend the day(s) outside.

This program will follow the Harris Center's COVID-19 outing guidelines (mask wearing, physical distancing, etc.) Group size is limited to 8 participants, a signed release form is required for each, and registration is required. Registration opens February 1.

► For more information or to register, contact Sara LeFebvre at (603) 525-3394 or lefebvre@harriscenter.org. The Harris Center is a nonprofit organization. This is not a ConVal School District-sponsored activity.

Wilderness Survival Skills for MIDDLE SCHOOLERS

FEBRUARY 1

Friday, March 19 • 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Harris Center • Grades 5 through 8
$45 for Harris Center supporters / $65 for all others

Join Harris Center teacher-naturalist John Benjamin for a day of wilderness survival skills. We'll hike to the summit of Mount Skatutakee and practice shelter building and safe fire making. We'll also track wild animals, play games in the woods, brew tea from wild edibles, and more! Come prepared to spend the day outdoors — bring warm layers, boots, a backpack, water, and a sack lunch.

This program will follow the Harris Center's COVID-19 outing guidelines (mask wearing, physical distancing, etc.) Group size is limited to 8 participants, a signed release form is required for each, and registration is required. Registration opens February 1.
